

List of NRC classified information policies

Policy	Recommend to Eliminate or Modify?	Comments
Management Directive 12.2, "NRC Classified Information Security Program"	No	Directive handbook section (B)(1)(e)(i) states, "Each person possessing original or derivative classification authority is accountable for their classification actions and must apply the classification principles of E.O. 13526. Unnecessary classification, over-classification , and under-classification must be avoided."
Memoranda, Delegation of Original Classification Authority	No	All memos granting original classification authority (Top Secret and Secret) state, "All original classification authorities must receive training in proper classification ( including the avoidance of over classification ) and declassification, as provided in Section 1.3(5)(d) of Executive Order 13526, at least once per calendar year."
Memoranda, Derivative Classification Authority	No	All memos granting derivative classification authority to qualified staff state, "Specifically, in accordance with 32 CFR Parts 2001 and 2003, persons who apply derivative classification markings shall receive training, at least once every 2 years, in the proper application of the derivative classification principles of the Order, with an emphasis on avoiding over-classification. "

Enclosure