NOTES:

Participants on the line will be muted except when the Chairman opens the meeting to public comment. When appropriate, members of the public and representatives of the nuclear industry may provide their views during the briefings. Presentation time should not exceed 50 percent of the total time allocated for a given item. The remaining 50 percent of the time is reserved for discussion. One (1) electronic copy of the presentation materials should be provided to the ACRS in advance of the briefing. Public Comments should be limited to 5 minutes each.

If you need a reasonable accommodation due to a disability to participate in this meeting or need meeting materials in another format (e.g. braille, large print), please email Reasonable_Accommodations.Resource@nrc.gov and the Designated Federal Officer. Determinations on requests for reasonable accommodation will be made on a case-by-case basis, and the agency may choose between which effective accommodations to provide. At least ten (10) days advance notice is recommended in order for a request to be processed and implemented if approved. However, every effort will be made to address any reasonable accommodations requests received with less notice.

If you have difficulty understanding and/or communicating in English, free language assistance or other aids and services may be available, upon request. Please email lepresources@nrc.gov and the Designated Federal Officer. Determinations on requests will be made on a case-by-case basis. At least ten (10) days advance notice is recommended in order for a request to be processed and implemented if approved. However, every effort will be made to address any reasonable accommodations requests received with less notice.

NRC's ACRS Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA) Information:

The ACRS was established by statute and is governed by the Federal Advisory Committee Act, or FACA. The NRC implements FACA in accordance with its regulations found in Title 10 Part 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Per these regulations and the Committee's Bylaws, the ACRS speaks only through its published letter reports. All Member comments should be regarded as only the individual opinion of that Member, not an ACRS position.

The ACRS, consistent with the Agency's value of public transparency in regulation of nuclear facilities, provides opportunity for public input and comment during our proceedings. Members of the public can provide written comments to the Designated Federal Officer that will be included in the meeting transcript. Members of the public may also make comments at designated times in the agenda.

All relevant information related to ACRS activities, such as letters, rules for meeting participation and transcripts are located on the NRC public website and can be found at "About Us ACRS". A transcript of this meeting is being kept and will be posted on our website. For additional information about ACRS scan or click on the QR code below.
