Change of Ownership

This letter is in response to regulation 10 CFR 30.34 (b), stating the requirement for notification and written consent from the Commission in regards to a transfer of control (ownership) of the MAHLE Industries, Incorporated (Licensee/ Transferor) to Acutex, Inc. (Transferee).

The Transferee is fully aware and committed to the details of License #21-12192-01 and the activities performed at the licensed site of MAHLE Industries, Incorporated, 2020 Sanford Street, Muskegon, Mi, 49444. This commitment to abide by the current license and activities includes the constraints, license conditions, requirements, representations and commitments identified in and attributed to the existing license. The Transferee has been made aware of the fact that there are no current open inspection items or enforcement items. The Transferee is fully prepared to continue the operations at this site with existing personnel on the license, safe use, handling, security, storage and disposition policies of the Hydrogen-3 material will not be altered in any way from the operations because of the purchase.

Our current surveillance program, including the weekly and quarterly area surveys and wipes tests, bioassays, bulletin information and safety training, and all quality control procedures and documentation are up to date and without issue. All surveillance program procedures will not be modified in any way and will remain in accordance to License #21-12192-01 at the time of control transfer.

To present date, there has not been any site decommissioning, nor does the transferor have intentions of any site decommissioning at this time.

As a result of this notification of transfer of control of License #21-12192-01 between the Transferor and the Transferee, it is requested that the Commission provide written consent to this transfer prior to the final sale date. More information will follow as requested and required. Please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Bob,

I received this email from a licensee yesterday – change of control instead of decommissioning. I responded to the individual and put you on cc. Please reach to me if you have any questions. Thank you

Mr. LaFranzo,

I am pleased to share with you that the MAHLE Muskegon Tech Center is being purchased by Acutex,

Inc. as opposed to going through the D&D process that we previously discussed.

I have attached the letter requesting written consent from the NRC to transfer control of License #21-12192-01. Please confirm that you have received this email and document. Should additional information be needed please feel free to reach out at any point.

Kind regards,
