To Whom It May Concern,

As of April 30, 2026, Wilson Veterinary Hospital is in the process of decommissioning the use of the tin-117M radiosynoviorthesis material within our facility. We are currently working with our licensed Diagnostic Radiology Medical Physicist (RSO) consultant for this process.

Sincerely,

Hello,

Please see the attached formal letter indicating that Wilson Veterinary Hospital is in the beginning stages of decommissioning the use of our nuclear materials within our facility. The letter is signed by Dr. Nicholas Vitale who is an owner of the practice but also is the name holder for the licensing.

Thank You,

Kelly Williams
