SRP, Chapter 5 -- Criticality Safety (Mar.15,1999

From: Burton Rothleder burton.rothleder@hq.doe.gov

Date: 3/24/99 7:45:25

Thread ID: 8

1. Update: ANSI/ANS-8.1-1998 is the latest revision of this endorsed

ANSI/ANS standard.

2. Correction to ANSI/ANS-8.6: In section 5.3, the "i.e." should be

"e.g." This is not merely a typo correction since the used of "i.e."
tacitly omits (n,2n) reactions as sources of neutrons. By endorsing this ANSI/ANS standard, I think that this error should be noted as par t
of the SRP.

3. Section 5.4.3.1: In section 5.4.3.1, paragraph 6.b., the sentence should read "... deterministic computer codes, or stochastic computer codes which ..." I have replaced "probabilistic" with "stochastic" in order to avoid confusion with PRA codes.
