Dear Mr. Conte:

Sonalysts recently received a copy of your July 8 letter to Mr. Roy Hickok of the North Atlantic Energy Service Corporation. This letter gives notice that a copyrighted document entitled: "NRC Written Examination Item Writing Workshop" owned by Sonalysts, Inc. will be placed in the NRC's Public Document Room (PDR) where it may be copied by or given to individuals requesting it.

Sonalysts believes that the Sonalysts' document does not fit within the requirements of 10CFR2.790(c) which mandate the kinds of documents which must be deposited in the PDR. Sonalysts copyrighted work does not relate to a license, permit, or order issued by the NRC, or a rule making proceeding. Sonalysts' training course was developed at its own expense for commercial purposes. Unauthorized copying of the document would violate applicable copyright law.

We ask that the NRC review this matter as soon as possible. Please let me know if you have questions or require additional information.
