Dear Sirs,

Thank you for your speedy reply on my comments on the Special Report. I hope that you got the corrected copy as I plead guilty to many typos on the original that I sent. I cannot afford the time to call you now. My wife is going into the hospital tomorrow and I plead family problems.

If you wish me to tutor you over the phone, I am available as a registered, professional, graduate engineer. Please send info on consultant remuneration.

In the alternative, I think that I gave you enough to look into the ignored problems on your own.

Very truly yours,

10/23/2000.
