Alan – Sorry, hope I didn't get you into hot water here. Attached are the proprietary slides, the non-proprietary slides and an affidavit. If you need anything else, please advise. Note that the files included here have been marked more formally than those handed out in the meeting; the info designated as proprietary has not been changed.

Jerry, you can send the redacted slides by email but I will need an affidavit saying the slides handed out at the meeting were proprietary. Alan

Thank you
