

Mr. Joseph K. Gasper is Manager: Major Projects for Omaha Public Power District. He is responsible for GSI-191 resolution, MUR uprate, cogeneration steam supply, and Extended Power Uprate projects for Fort Calhoun Station. Previous projects included license renewal, simulator refurbishment, low pressure turbine replacement, dry fuel storage, and risk analysis for the Life Extension Projects.

Mr. Gasper received a BS degree in Physics from Nebraska Wesleyan University and an MS and PhD degrees in Nuclear Engineering from Iowa State University. He earned an MBA from the University of Nebraska at Omaha. His 32-year career with Omaha Public Power District has included leadership positions in training, licensing and reactor and safety analysis.