

Jeffrey T. Gasser
Executive Vice President and Chief Nuclear Officer
Southern Nuclear Operating Company
Birmingham Alabama

Jeffrey T. Gasser, Executive Vice President and Chief Nuclear Officer for the Southern Nuclear Operating Company, is responsible for oversight of all operational and regulatory activities related to the Joseph M. Farley Nuclear Plant, Edwin I. Hatch Nuclear Plant, and the Alvin W. Vogtle Electric Generating Plant.

Jeff joined the Southern Company system in 1983 as a Junior Engineer at Plant Vogtle. He attended Georgia Institute of Technology where he received his Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering, and his MBA from Augusta State University.

He has held many positions in the Southern Company system including Shift Technical Advisor, Shift Supervisor, Shift Superintendent, Outage Scheduling Supervisor, Unit Superintendent, Manager, Assistant General Manager, General Manager, and Vice President of the Vogtle Project.