

Commander Frederick (Fritz) Kass is a Board Certified Family Physician in the United States Navy. He has served as the Senior Medical Officer for an Operational Marine Battalion and a forward deployed surface ship, the Chief of the Medical Staff at a Naval Hospital and as a director at Navy Medicine Headquarters- the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery. He is currently serving as a Navy Fellow/Liaison Officer at the Department of Health and Human Services in the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response working on issues including medical contingency planning to respond to Chemical, Biologic and Radiation events as well as Pandemic Influenza.