

Ken Canavan

For the last three years, Ken has been employed by the Electric Power Research Institute (EPRI). Currently Ken is the Risk and Safety Program Manager managing all aspects of the EPRI risk technology program. Prior to joining EPRI, Ken was Manager of Risk Analysis for Data, Systems and Solutions (DS&S) a subsidiary of SAIC and a Supervisor at ERIN Engineering and Research.

The bulk of Ken's 20 plus years of experience is in the utility sector of the nuclear power industry with both GPU Nuclear, the previous owners of the Three Mile Island and Oyster Creek nuclear generating stations, and Toledo Edison at the Davis-Besse nuclear power station. Ken is a graduate of Manhattan College with a degree in chemical engineering (minor in nuclear engineering).