

Ms. Julie Keys is Senior Project Manager for Safety Focused Regulation at the Nuclear Energy Institute (NEI), the industry organization responsible for establishing unified nuclear industry policy on matters affecting the nuclear energy industry.

Ms. Keys has over 24 years of experience in the nuclear industry and has worked at organizations such as: Westinghouse, Dominion, Newport New Shipbuilding and Bechtel. Julie's experience has involved: performing transient analyses, quality assurance auditing, shift refueling engineer and licensing engineer. She assumed her current position as Senior Project Manager and head of the NEI Reactor Oversight Process Task Force in October 2006.