

Mr. Thomas S. O'Neill is Vice President, Regulatory Affairs, for Exelon Nuclear. Mr. O'Neill is responsible for NRC licensing of Exelon's nuclear plants; federal, state and local regulatory/government affairs; and environmental issues. Mr. O'Neill also provides oversight for legal matters affecting the business. Prior to joining Exelon in 2001, he was a partner with Jenner & Block in Chicago, Illinois where he practiced civil and criminal litigation in the federal and state courts for a wide range of corporate and individual clients.