

*RIC 2008
Nuclear Security
Industry Perspective
March 12, 2008*

*Chris Kelley
Director, Nuclear Security
Entergy*

1

Industry Perspective on Nuclear Security

- Discussion
 - September 11, 2001 – Seven Years Later
 - How are we doing today?
 - What does the future hold?

2

Industry Perspective on Nuclear Security

- Pre-September 11, 2001
 - Well Protected Nuclear Facilities
- September 11, 2001
 - Immediate Industry Response
 - NRC issues Advisories & Orders
 - Strategy Modifications
 - Significant Capital and O&M Upgrades of > $1 Billion

3

Industry Perspective on Nuclear Security

- Where Do We Stand Today – The Tests are Harder and the Industry is doing well
 - Hardened Facilities
 - Improved Training - Curriculum and Facilities
 - Fully Integrated Strategies (Ops and EP)
 - NRC Baseline Inspections
 - NRC Force On Force Evaluations
 - DHS Comprehensive Reviews
 - Most Secure Industrial Facilities In U.S.

4

Industry Perspective on Nuclear Security

- The Future
 - NRC Rule Making
 - Role of the Security Working Group and Task Forces
 - Force On Force Cycle II
 - Building Coordination With Offsite Agencies
 - Nuclear Sector Coordinating Council
 - New Plants

5

Questions?

6
