

Daniel Frumkin

Mr. Frumkin is the Team Leader for the Fire Protection Branch and was instrumental in developing and implementing the resolution for fire-induced circuit failures. He coordinated with industry stakeholders the resolution of the fire-induced circuit failure issue including developing Commission papers, holding public meetings, and developing the final regulatory guide on the subject. He has a Bachelors degree in Fire Protection Engineering and has worked for the NRC since 2000.