

Anil Julka

BS In electrical Engineering, MS in Materials Science and Engineering from Washington State University. Received MBA from Lemoyne College and a senior reactor certification for BWR from Nine Mile Point Unit 2. Worked in the nuclear industry for number of years including Bechtel Westinghouse and Constellation. Currently in charge of the PRA efforts for Constellation Energy Nuclear group. Also involved in setting up the fleet structure for handling design changes. Has been involved with the risk-informed fire aspects since Constellation signed the intent to transition.