

Bruce Montgomery

Mr. Montgomery has 31 years of experience in the commercial nuclear industry, the majority of which has been with Constellation Energy. Mr. Montgomery has held a number of leadership positions at Constellation Energy, including fleet manager of quality and performance assessment, manager of site engineering at the Calvert Cliffs Nuclear Power Station, licensing director at Calvert Cliffs, and general supervisor of systems engineering at Calvert Cliffs.

Mr. Montgomery is currently assigned to the corporate nuclear headquarters office in Baltimore and is serving in the position of Manager, Fleet Safety and Security. In this position Mr. Montgomery is responsible for regulatory and environmental programs, emergency planning, and nuclear security.

Mr. Montgomery holds a Calvert Cliffs plant operations certification and is a 1976 graduate of the United States Naval Academy where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Marine Engineering.

