

Donald Rickard

Don Rickard currently serves as a Licensing Specialist for STARS Regulatory Affairs. STARS is an Alliance of 7 independently operated stations across the Southwestern part of the United States. He is employed by AmerenUE and located at the Callaway Nuclear Plant near Fulton Missouri. He previously worked at Clinton Power Station, Arkansas Nuclear One, and Surry. He has held positions in licensing, performance improvement, Corrective Action Program supervisor, engineering, operations training, operations, and as a shift technical advisor. He previously held a Senior Reactor Operator license on Unit 2 at Arkansas and has his Professional Engineer license in Arkansas, Illinois, and Missouri.