

Jack Roe

Dr. Roe joined the Nuclear Energy Institute in July 2005. He is currently the Director, Security Integration and Coordination. He has also served as the Director, Security and Operations Support and Director, Operations Support. He has over 30 years of professional experience in the safety of nuclear facilities and the environmental assessments needed to support licensing activities.

Prior to joining NEI, Jack was a Vice Present for Nuclear Safety Programs at Advanced Technology and Laboratories and Manager of International Safety Programs at SCIENTECH Inc. Prior to joining SCIENTECH Inc. in 1999, Dr. Roe was a senior executive at the US Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) with more than 24 years in positions of increasing responsibility. Dr. Roe has significant international regulatory experience.