

Donald Tailleart

Donald Tailleart has over 25 years of experience in nuclear power, focusing on emergency preparedness. Mr. Tailleart is the Regulatory Improvements Team Leader responsible for the current NRC emergency preparedness rulemaking and guidance update initiative. Prior to joining the NRC, he was the Emergency Preparedness Manager for several nuclear power plants, and worked as a consultant on various emergency preparedness projects in the nuclear power industry. Mr. Tailleart holds a BS degree in Chemical Engineering from Michigan State University.