

James Trapp

Mr. Trapp graduated from Purdue University (1980) with a Bachelor of Science degree in Nuclear Engineering received a Masters of Science degree in Nuclear Engineering from Columbia University (1984). Mr. Trapp began his career at Consolidated Edison of NY/Indian Point Unit 2 Nuclear Power Station in 1980. While at Indian Point, was licensed as a Senior Reactor Operator. Mr. Trapp joined the U. S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) in 1988 as an inspector in the Division of Reactor Safety and has held several positions including Senior Inspector, Senior Reactor Analyst, and a Branch Chief in the Division of Reactor Projects. Since 2007, he has been a Branch Chief for Security, Emergency Preparedness and Incident Response in Region I.