

Martin Virgilio

Martin J. Virgilio is the Deputy Executive Director for Materials, Waste, Research, State, Tribal and Compliance Programs and is responsible for leading the Offices of Nuclear Material Safety and Safeguards, Federal and State Materials and Environmental Management Programs, Nuclear Regulatory Research, Enforcement and Investigations. Mr. Virgilio joined the NRC in 1977, advancing within the technical staff of the Office of Nuclear Reactor Regulation in mechanical, electrical and nuclear plant operations review and in a variety of supervisory roles. He has held progressively responsible positions at the NRC including Deputy Director and then Director of the Office of Nuclear Materials Safety and Safeguards. Mr. Virgilio also served as the Executive Assistant and Director of the Office of the Chairman.

Mr. Virgilio received his B.S. degree from the United States Merchant Marine Academy in 1971 and has completed postgraduate work in nuclear engineering at Catholic University. Mr. Virgilio began his nuclear career in 1973, when he joined Newport News Shipbuilding's Atomic Power Division. From 1973 to 1977 he worked in the design verification, start-up and post-maintenance test programs for nuclear-powered aircraft carriers. Mr. Virgilio received the Presidential Meritorious Rank Award in 1991 and 1999.