TH38 Reactor Oversight Process – Retrospective and Future

For the last decade, the Reactor Oversight Process has served as the framework for providing oversight of the operating commercial power reactors in the US. The purpose of this session is to facilitate exchange ideas on the future direction of the ROP.

Session Chair: Frederick Brown, Director, Division of Inspection and Regional Support, NRC/NRR

Speakers/Panelists:

A Retrospective of the First Ten Years of the ROP
Presentation View Handout View

Marc Dapas, Deputy Regional Administrator, NRC/Region I

An Industry Perspective on the Future of the ROP
Presentation View Handout View

Thomas Houghton, Director of Safety Focus Regulations, Nuclear Energy Institute

An NRC Perspective on the Future of the ROP
Presentation View Handout View

Charles Casto, Deputy Regional Administrator, NRC/Region IV

An Independent Perspective on the Elements of an Effective Oversight Process
Presentation View Handout View

B. John Garrick, Chairman, U.S. Nuclear Waste Technical Review Board

Session Coordinator:

Leslie Fields, NRC/NRR, tel: (301) 415-1186, e-mail: Leslie.Fields@nrc.gov