

The following Security Advisory is not available because it is marked "Official Use Only – Security-Related Information" and is exempted from public disclosure in accordance with 10 CFR 2.390.

SA-08-08, "National Special Security Event At Denver, Colorado" dated August 6, 2008.

In 2008, DHS had designated an event in Denver, Colorado a National Special Security Event (NSSE). Therefore, the NRC recommended that selected NRC and Agreement State licensees who may possess radioactive materials maintain heightened vigilance for potential security threats.

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) has issued Security Advisory (SA)-08-08 to certain large materials licensees (NRC and agreement state) who possess, use, ship or receive high-risk radioactive materials. Note that the security advisory contains physical security information and is, therefore, being withheld from public disclosure in accordance with 10 CFR 2.390.
