

BIOGRAPHY

Ann Marie Hauser

Ms. Hauser serves as Senior Advisor for Strategy and Communications to Chairman Ho K. Nieh, helping advance the chairman's priorities for the agency.

She has extensive experience as a strategic advisor across political, corporate, and foreign policy arenas, with service in Senate leadership, multiple presidential administrations, and Wall Street. She most recently served as Senior Advisor for Public Affairs at Fulcrum Macro Advisors. Ms. Hauser's federal service includes senior strategic communications roles in the U.S. Senate, U.S. Department of Treasury, and U.S. Department of Commerce. Her background spans national messaging strategy, high-performing team leadership, and advising senior leaders in government and industry. She has also held leadership positions at Hudson Institute and JPMorgan Chase.

Ms. Hauser has a Bachelor of Arts in speech communications and journalism and a Master's in International Policy.